Photocopied Reserve "Fair Use" Worksheet
FLAGLER COLLEGE
Proctor Library

In our effort to ensure that all items placed on reserve are in compliance with the Fair Use doctrine of the Copyright Law (17 U.S. Code; 107-108), please review the following questions before placing photocopied items on reserve. If you answer "yes" to any one of these questions, it will be necessary to obtain permission from the publisher to place this item on reserve. Please see one of the librarians or circulation technicians for further options.

1. Have you placed this article/chapter/section on reserve here before?
Yes___ No___
2. Is this item on reserve for more than one class this semester?
Yes___ No___
3. Is this item a photocopy of more than one chapter (or one article) from the bound original?
Yes___ No___
4. Does the number of pages copied exceed 10% of the total pages of the bound original?
Yes___ No___

If you answered "yes" to any of the above four questions, you must receive permission from the publisher to place this item on reserve. Go to the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) at www.copyright.com to set up your own account that will enable you to get the clearance you need. If you have received permission, where needed, to place an item on reserve, simply complete this form and attach a receipt from the CCC indicating so.

If you answered "no" to questions 1-4 above, please complete the form below and turn it in with the item at the circulation desk for processing. If it is determined later that there may be an issue regarding copyright not determinable with the above information, you will be contacted immediately for further options.
