

Proctor Library – Flagler College MLA Citation Sheet

8th Edition (2016)

For information on correctly formatting a paper please consult part one of the MLA Handbook, 8th Edition in the Ready Reference Collection, LB2369 .G53 2016.

The most important components of a citation are the primary author(s)/contributor(s), book or journal title, article title, date, secondary contributor(s), publisher, volume and issue numbers, page number(s), series/database title, and URL or DOI. Of secondary importance to the 8th Edition are publication location and access date.

If the document you are citing is missing a piece of information, skip that portion of the citation and move onto the next part. If you have questions on how these examples were put together, please refer to the MLA Slideshow on the Citation Page: <http://libguides.flagler.edu/c.php?g=72266&p=464871>.

Please see a librarian if you need any help!
